A HANDBOOK FOR MANAGERS

Ruth Wilson

“This handbook is essential for any volunteering organisation wanting to build up and strengthen diversity. Whether your volunteers are helping refugee clients or whether you want to include refugee volunteers, it gives you clear guidelines, practical examples, useful contacts and lots of ideas. Highly recommended.”

Trevor Phillips Chair, Commission for Racial Equality

“... offers invaluable practical and well-organised advice to any organisation wanting to provide volunteering opportunities for refugees and asylum seekers. The a-z describes good practice and has captured the experiences of volunteers and volunteer managers themselves. Do buy it.”

Maeve Sherlock Chief Executive, Refugee Council

The a-z of volunteering and asylum

The a-z of volunteering and asylum is a practical handbook for:

- people managing volunteers who sometimes, often or always work with refugees or asylum seekers
- people managing volunteers who are refugees or asylum seekers
- groups and organisations wanting to develop this area of work

It sets out good practice, gives ideas on how to manage a wide range of issues, and is based on the experience of volunteers and volunteer managers across the UK.

£12 per copy, inclusive of postage and packaging.

How to pay:

- To purchase one or more copies paying by cheque, fill in and return the order form below.
